A blue industrial air compressor with four pistons on top. The pistons are silver with black cooling fans. A coiled orange hose is attached to the side. The tank has the word "HYDRA" partially visible. It sits on a single black wheel.

A green and black Bosch Professional high-pressure washer. It has a spray lance attached to the top and a power cord trailing on the floor. The Bosch logo and "Professional" branding are visible on the side.

A black metal cabinet or storage unit with a door. It is located in the background on the left side of the image.

A white vertical structural pillar or support beam, likely part of a lift system, located in the background.
